Question 2 (10 marks)

Explain why US entry into World War I proved to be the most significant of the war's turning points.

Use Sources A and B and your own knowledge to answer this question.

Entry into WWI was the most significant of the war's turning points.

Germany was constantly on Britain & France's back ~~for~~ continuously putting up a fight.

The USA brought thousands of soldiers & lots of guns & vehicles. They had all the muscle. Their entry meant that the allies could now hold back German attacks & press on & also maintain ~~the~~ ~~control~~ ~~over~~ what control they had over Germany.

The morale of British & French troops were lifted with the knowledge that the USA were coming to their aid & also because they would need no effort which ~~is~~ can back up its army to Europe.

The USA entry turned the war to Germany & gave more power to the Allied forces.
