Question 2 (10 marks)

Explain why US entry into World War I proved to be the most significant of the war’s turning points.

Use Sources A and B and your own knowledge to answer this question.

Ending into main war, the most significant of all

The war’s turning points:

Germany was constantly on British & French back foot continuously putting up a fight.

The USA fought thousands of soldiers, a lot of guns & vehicles. They had all the muscle. Their entry meant that the allies could now hold back Germany attacks & press on also maintain redeploy to what central they had our Germany

The morale of British & French troops were lifted with the knowledge that the USA were coming to their aid & also because they would make a last effort which came hand its coming to Europe.

The USA entry turned the war to Germany’s favour & more chance to the Allied Forces.
